I must say I've enjoyed saving campground fees, using Passport America, as I traveled across our country, full-time RV'ing since '04. I've found great Passport campgrounds out in the country, in small and large towns. One of the best ended up being my full time summer and fall address, River Camp, RV in Piney Creek, North Carolina. I hope other Passport users enjoy this service as much as I have! Regards,

- Steve Wall

We have made Bass Lake in Dillon, SC our stop on our way home from Plant City, Florida for the last few years and are very pleased with their services. We will stop again this year in April.

- Gordon & Edna Porter

We only stayed one night but found the Archer Park, An RV Community in Beeville, TX to be wonderful. We had a back-in gravel site but there are many big rig friendly pull throughs. The staff and folks in the park we met were very friendly and all the water/power/sewer hookups worked well. Our site was level and the bathhouse is very clean and modern. I highly recommend this park.

- Robert Omstead

Flag City RV Resort, this is where you need to stay in Lodi, CA. Definitely 5-star. Sites are level concrete slabs with enough room for a decent patio. Picnic tables and trees at each site. Utilities work great. Cable has most of the channels I wanted, but no complaints. Wifi was too slow for me, but they have an option to pay for faster service. The free coffee is some of the best I've had. Location is convenient and yet freeway noise is not overwhelming. I was supposed to leave on Sunday but wanted to go to a church service so they allowed me to do a late checkout with no extra charge.

- Michael Miller

Stayed El Rancho Lobo RV Park, Deming, NM in March 2019 and enjoyed the staff and park so much that I decided to snowbird here from Nov/19 -Feb/2020. Quiet, safe and out of the way park with wonderful owners and awesome management who go out of their way to make sure your stay is comfortable right down to free coffee and muffins all day. Staff is right there to escort you to your space and help you set up if needed. Nice exercise room open 24/7 with variety of machines as well as pool table. The TV Community room features another TV much larger and board games as well as exchange library & DVDs. Shower and rest room area is very clean as well as laundry room with $1 wash/$1 dry machines. Long stay or short term, everyone is friendly and helpful. Long stay rates are very budget friendly.

- TJ Hunter

Bass Lake RV Campground, Dillon, SC, this little RV park/ Campground is awesome! I have stayed here twice and it amazes me how smooth check in is, and the office staff is super nice as well. I have a small 20 foot Travel Trailer and I on both visits have been perfect. Pretty much halfway to Jacksonville. What a deal! This is now my go-to whenever I'm passing through the area. Highly recommended!

- Russ Haire

Kamp Klamath RV Park & Campground, Klamath, CA, is a nice, peaceful getaway with access to the Klamath river, the beach and some of the best redwoods you'll ever see. The folks are friendly. The park is far away from any real traffic. They have fresh eggs available from chickens raised in a coop that is actually a converted RV trailer. How cool is that? There is a minimal cable package which is not bad. Sites are mostly level. Note: Klamath is not much of a city, so it is best to come with the groceries (and everything else) you need.

Lookin' At Lubbock

Text by Barbara Oliver

They stand on 28-acres of rolling hills, an area known as Mackenzie Park...seventy historic restored windmills. Since Lubbock is the 3rd windiest city in the country, I think I will call them "sentinels in the wind". They are part of the American Wind Power Center and Museum, the world's largest wind powered museum. Many, many more are on exhibit inside the 33,000 square foot building plus a 6,600 square foot model train layout which celebrates the relationship between the railroad and windmills in the 1800's.

Here the visitor can learn how people have used and continue to use their ingenuity in harnessing the wind to live in varied environments. The purpose of the museum is to acquire, restore, preserve and display these historic windmills and wind related equipment for research and education. Information: 806-747-8734

The Lubbock Lake National Historic Landmark is part of the Texas Tech University. It is active and one of the premier archaeological and natural history sites in North America. It covers 336-acres and is a protected state and federal landmark that contains evidence of almost 12,000 years of occupation by the ancient people. It was also a prehistoric watering hole of the now-extinct giant Bison Antiquus and Mastadons and the amazing short-faced Bear.

The Landmark is committed to providing visitors of all ages with enriching experiences. There are maps for the walking trails that lead you to different historic sites. Wheelchair accessibility outdoors varies. There is RV parking available and admission is free.

Information: 806-742-1116

Over 80 years ago a Spanish Renaissance Revival style train depot, considered one of the most largest and elaborate ones along the Lubbock-Esteline branch of the Burlington Railroad's Fort Worth and Denver City Line, greeted passengers as they disembarked from the train. Today it is on the National Register of Historic Places and houses The Buddy Holly Center and Museum.

The center collects, preserves and interprets artifacts relevant to the city's most famous son, Buddy Holly, as well as other West Texas performing artists and musicians. It showcases Buddy Holly memorabilia, changing exhibits, a gallery and gift shop.

This year marks the 61st anniversary of the traffic plane crash that took the lives of Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens, J.P. (The Big Bopper) Richardson and pilot Roger Peterson.

Across the street, just west of the center, located on the corner of Cricket Avenue and 19th Street, is the West Texas Walk of Fame where the statue of Buddy Holly takes center stage. Information: 806-775-3560

Here at the Bayer Museum of Agriculture the history of farming and the science and technology of modern day farming is offered to the public, free of charge. The mission of the museum is to preserve, tell the story and to instill pride in the farming industry.

There is a large collection of antique farm equipment, toys, tools, holograms and interactive exhibits like the Cotton Harvest Experience, where you watch a film and drive a cotton stripper.

Jalapeño Popper Dip

This Jalapeño Popper Dip appetizer is a warm, creamy recipe with a crunchy topping that will be the surprise hit at any party or gathering. This easy Jalapeño Popper Dip is one of our favorites. It's the perfect dip to make during the winter months because it's a warm and creamy dip. Every time I make this dip, I always come home with an empty dish. It is that good! Oh, and don't worry, this dip is not blazing hot. It just has a slight kick. If you want it hotter, you could certainly add in more jalapeños.

Ingredients:

2 (8 ounce) packages cream cheese, softened
1 cup Mayonnaise
½ cup Cheddar Cheese Blend, shredded
½ cup Parmesan Cheese
1 4 oz can green chilies, diced
1 4 oz can jalapeños, diced (you can use fresh jalapenos)
5 slices Bacon (Cooked and chopped)

Topping Ingredients:

1 ½ cup crushed Ritz Crackers
½ cup Parmesan Cheese
½ stick melted butter

Directions:

Preheat oven to 375° degrees. Spray a 2-quart casserole dish with nonstick cooking spray.

Cook and stir bacon in a skillet over medium-heat until crisp, about 10 minutes. Remove bacon and put on a paper towel to drain. After cool, chop into small pieces.

Stir bacon, cream cheese, mayonnaise, Cheddar cheese, Mozzarella cheese and jalapeno peppers together in a bowl, spread into a 9'inch round baking dish.

Mix crackers, Parmesan cheese, and butter together in a bowl, spread over the top of the cream cheese mixture.

Bake in preheated oven until bubbly, 20-30 minutes. Serve warm with Ritz crackers.

Please submit your favorite travel recipes! Include full recipe, photos, and author.

Story of the Birds

by Paul Harvey

There once was a man named George Thomas, a pastor in a small New England town. One Easter Sunday morning he came to the Church carrying a rusty, bent, old bird cage, and set it by the pulpit. Several eyebrows were raised and, as if in response, Pastor Thomas began to speak.

"I was walking through town yesterday when I saw a young boy coming toward me swinging this bird cage. On the bottom of the cage were three little wild birds, shivering with cold and fright.

I stopped the lad and asked, "What you got there son?"

"Just some old birds," came the reply.

"What are you gonna do with them?" I asked.

"Take 'em home and have fun with 'em," he answered. I'm gonna tease 'em and pull out their feathers to make 'em fight. I'm gonna have a real good time."

"But you'll get tired of those birds sooner or later. What will you do then?"

"Oh, I got some cats," said the little boy. "They like birds. I'll take 'em to them."

The pastor was silent for a moment. "How much do you want for Those birds, son?"

"Huh??!!! Why, you don't want them birds, mister. They're just plain old field birds. They don't sing -- they ain't even pretty!"

"How much?" the pastor asked again. The boy sized up the pastor as if he were crazy and said, "$10?" The pastor reached in his pocket and took out a ten dollar bill.

He placed it in the boy's hand. In a flash, the boy was gone.

The pastor picked up the cage and gently carried it to the end of The alley where there was a tree and a grassy spot. Setting the cage down, he opened the door, and by softly tapping the bars persuaded the birds out, setting them free.

Well, that explained the empty bird cage on the pulpit, and then The pastor began to tell this story. One day Satan and Jesus were having a conversation. Satan had just come from the Garden of Eden, and he was gloating and boasting.

"Yes, sir, I just caught the world full of people down there. Set me a trap, used bait I knew they couldn't resist. Got 'em all!"

"What are you going to do with them?" Jesus asked.

Satan replied, "Oh, I'm gonna have fun! I'm gonna teach them how To marry and divorce each other, how to hate and abuse each other, How to drink and smoke and curse. I'm gonna teach them how to invent guns and bombs and kill each other. I'm really gonna have fun!"

"And what will you do when you get done with them?" Jesus asked.

"Oh, I'll kill 'em," Satan glared proudly.

"How much do you want for them?" Jesus asked.

"Oh, you don't want those people.

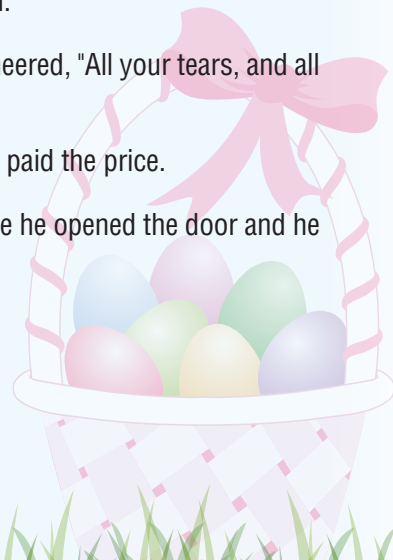

They ain't no good. Why, you'll take them and they'll just hate you. They'll spit on you, curse you and kill you!! You don't want those people!!"

"How much?" He asked again.

Satan looked at Jesus and sneered, "All your tears, and all your blood."

Jesus said, "DONE!" Then He paid the price.

The pastor picked up the cage he opened the door and he walked from The pulpit.
