Editor's Notes

Summer has finally arrived! It's time to hit the road and head out for another great camping adventure. It's time to make memories while sitting around a campfire with family and friends – all sharing news of the day's activities. It's a time to slow down and really appreciate one of the many blessings God has given us – a beautiful country to explore!

Heading to the Florida or Texas area? On page 6, you'll learn about two of Passport America's newest campgrounds one located in Lakes Whales, FL – Camp Central RV Parks North & South. In the warm winter Florida sunshine, Camp Central RV Parks have been hailed as a premier resort in Central Florida mainly because of their friendly residents. On page 7, Houston East RV Resort is a beautiful well groomed RV Resort to spend time at while you're visiting the Baytown/Houston area.

Barbara Oliver takes us on a trip to The Colorado Monument is a special place: not a man-made tribute, but a dramatic example of the incomparable artistry of nature, see Page 7. For a super-quick and easy breakfast, try the Egg & Sausage Breakfast Roll-ups, see Page 11. Then on Page 16, Barbara Oliver shares about John Otto, — Trailbuilder, Promoter and Patriot.

Want to earn money while camping and traveling? It's easy to do! Participate in the Passport America Referral Program that pays you every month. See page 21 for more details.

As always, we, at Passport America, are eager to hear from our members and readers. If you have suggestions, stories, photos, feedback, tips, recipes, etc., please send them to us at RV America Magazine, c/o April Fillingim, 5713 Hwy 85 North, Crestview, FL 32536, or email to: april@passportamerica.net

We wish you safe and happy travels as you travel along our beautiful open roads!

Cain's Creekside RV Park, Hahira, GA—Great overnight stay. Neat and clean. Site 3 pull through, level with small fence and landscape between sites. Catch and release fishing. Room to walk the dogs. Will stay again.
- Deborah Newell

Bolivar Peninsula RV Park, Crystal Beach, TX — The manager at this campground is amazing. She goes out of her way to help you with basically anything. Very clean sites and we love it . We have stayed two different times here and will come back .Thank you Janel and Steve Johnson
- Janel Johnson

Route 66 RV Park, Edgewood, NM — Super easy to get to right off highway 40. The staff was really helpful, kind and had a great sense of humor. The grounds were clean and quiet. There are only two showers and if someone showers right before you there isn't enough hot water. Service hook up were more than adequate. Super amazing sunset the night we were there. Definitely would stay here again.
- Ray and Mary

Ye Olde Mill Campground, Burnt Cabins, PA — We love this place. It is not new or state of the art except maybe for the Wi-Fi, which is excellent. No cable, which to us is an advantage!!! Burnt Cabins Campground is like the best shoes you ever had....comfortable and makes you happy to wear, or in this case visit. Fantastic deli sandwiches...but make sure you add pickles to the sandwich, and you will see why. The camp store prices are as fair as you will find in a supermarket, but the quality is superior. They sell products made right in Pennsylvania too. Take advantage of buying products made at their grist mill...all kinds of flours which are excellent. Make pancakes from the pancake flours they make right there. We get off the beaten path to come here as much as we can, and have never regretted it one bit.

Endless Caverns, New Market, VA — What a gem. Large sites, full hook ups, extremely quiet and peaceful. Terraced facility on the side of a mountain. If you want to tour a cavern, this is the place to go. If you just want to be in the woods and have serenity, this is the place to go. I understand there is a potato chip factory nearby to tour, but haven't made that yet. Been there 4 times now, and it is a must stop location when we go up and down the east coast. I wish they would open a restaurant on site, which is not a criticism, just a suggestion.

- Chris Jones

Cherokee RV Park, Blacksburg, SC — Excellent place to stay the night or the week, or longer. Quiet, well kept, and the management is very helpful in every way. I have never been in a campground that gives you a propane grill to use, along with a state of the art picnic table (easy in and out). Horses kept nearby give you a country setting, and you can eat from one of the new pergola platforms and look at the scenery. No noises except for an occasional train whistle off in the distance. Full hook ups and cable.

Colorado National Monument

Text & Photos
by Barbara Oliver

The Colorado Monument is a special place: not a man-made tribute, but a dramatic example of the incomparable artistry of nature. The park embraces some of the same geologic wonders as Bryce Canyon, the Arches and the Grand Canyon National Parks. The only paved road through the park is the 23-mile Rim Rock Drive, built by the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) and many local men in those depression-wracked days.

It will take you from the Grand Valley floor up onto the brilliantly eroded Uncompahgre Plateau, dipping in and out of canyons along the way and will provide views of the 20,533-acre park. Here broad forested mesas, deep colorful sheer canyons and towering sandstone monoliths celebrate a billion and a half years of history.

Cold Shivers Point, Red Canyon, Coke Ovens and Artists Point are a few of the intriguing names of the overlooks. Stop for a moment and take in the breathtaking view of the dramatic landforms. One of our favorites and best known formation is the 450-foot high Independence Monument, created by the forces of wind, weather and erosion.

Due to the efforts of John Otto, Trailbuilder, Promoter and Patriot and sometimes referred to as the “Hermit of the Monument Canyon”, the Colorado National Monument came into being on May 24th, 1911 when President William H. Taft signed proclamation No. 1126 making it Colorado's second national monument.

Set aside to protect its "extraordinary examples of weathering and erosion," the Colorado National Monument encompasses a 32-square mile area of spectacular scenery. As many as 730,000 visitors enjoy the beauty of sheer sandstone cliffs, towering monoliths, and panoramic canyon views annually.

The monument has a visitor center, a campground and a dozen hiking trails and is a mecca for bicyclists and rock climbers.

For more information on the Colorado National Monument visit the website at www.nps.gov.

Egg & Sausage Breakfast Roll-Ups

This recipe is a fun take on your typical breakfast sandwich. Corn flour tortillas are filled with sausage links, scrambled eggs, and cheddar cheese, before being rolled up and toasted in a hot pan. I used pork sausage links in these yummy Egg and Sausage Breakfast Taquitos and my family devoured them. They're so incredibly easy too.

INGREDIENTS:

- 7 ounce box fully cooked sausage links
- 5 large eggs
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 ½ cups shredded cheese, your favorite kind
- 1 cup baby spinach leaves, chopped (optional)
- 10 white corn tortillas, or 6" flour tortillas

DIRECTIONS:

- Preheat oven to 425 degrees F.
- Add frozen sausage links to a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook, turning occasionally, until warmed through.
- Remove to a plate, leaving a little bit of the sausage grease in the pan.
- Crack eggs into a bowl and add a splash of milk. Whisk well with a fork and add to the pan.
- Season with salt/pepper. Cook for a few minutes, tossing and scrambling as they cook. (If using spinach, add it to the pan about 2 minutes before the eggs are done cooking.) Remove from heat.
- Warm the tortillas on a hot skilled or griddle for a few seconds until they are pliable.
- Place sausage link on top, then sprinkle with shredded cheese. Roll up and place, seam side down, on a baking sheet lined with foil or parchment paper.
- Spray lightly with cooking spray and bake for 10-15 minutes

A Nation's Strength

By William Ralph Emerson

What makes a nation's pillars high
And its foundations strong?
What makes it mighty to defy
The foes that round it throng?

It is not gold. Its kingdoms grand
Go down in battle shock;
Its shafts are laid on sinking sand,
Not on abiding rock.

Is it the sword? Ask the red dust
Of empires passed away;
The blood has turned their stones to rust,
Their glory to decay.

And is it pride? Ah, that bright crown
Has seemed to nations sweet;
But God has struck its luster down
In ashes at his feet.

Not gold but only men can make
A people great and strong;
Men who for truth and honor's sake
Stand fast and suffer long.

Brave men who work while others sleep,
Who dare while others fly...
They build a nation's pillars deep
And lift them to the sky.

Legends

Trailbuilder Promoter & Patriot

Text & Photos
by Barbara Oliver

“ I came here last year and found these canyons and they felt like the heart of the world to me. I'm going to stay and promote this place, because it should be a national park“...John Otto 1907

John Otto was born in Marthasville, Missouri on December 30th, 1870. In 1906, he made his way to the Grand Valley to work as a “powder monkey”...someone who works with explosives on a water pipeline. He acquainted himself with the neighboring topography and fell in love with the sheer-walled canyons cut deep into the sandstone and granite-gneiss/schist rock formations. For twenty years, Otto, usually seen with his two burros, Fokie and Cookie, lived alone in the canyons and used a pick and shovel to carve out the first trails into this rugged landscape to reach the glorious red rock canyons. Always the patriot, he named the rock formations he encountered after great heroes and historic events. Some of the formations, such as Independence Monument and Liberty Cap, still bear the names he gave them.

Known as eccentric and a recluse, he put aside his solitude to publicize these beautiful canyons. Beginning in 1909, he conducted tours, spoke to reporters, wrote newspaper editorials, held fundraisers, had petitions signed and wrote many letters to Washington politicians. His enthusiasm was contagious and others joined the band wagon.

The year 1911 held many events for John Otto. On May 24, President William H. Taft established Colorado National Monument with presidential proclamation No. 1126, under the authority of the Antiquities Act. This became the second national monument established in the state of Colorado and the 17th national monument unit. (The first national monument was Wheeler Geologic Area, near Creede, which held the title from 1908 until 1950, when it became part of Colorado's protected La Garita Wilderness Area.)

On June 20th, John Otto and Beatrice Farham were married. Beatrice was a 20th-century Boston artist and entrepreneur who was notable for her native-American-inspired fashion and handicrafts. The marriage was short-lived when Beatrice left a few months later and never returned.

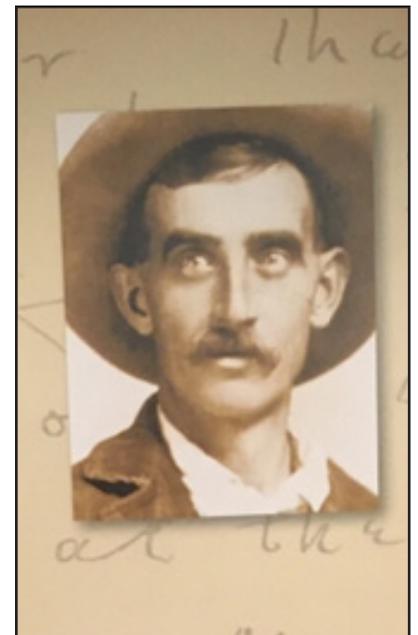

On July 4th, John Otto launched a unique tradition honored by the park and community yet today...by boldly scrambling up Independence

Monument, the largest feature in the park, to raise the American flag atop the summit.

John Otto became the first park custodian at Colorado National Monument, earning $1 a month.

After 16 years he retired and moved to Yreka, California where he died on June 19th, 1952 at age 81 years old. He was buried in a paupers grave.

Funds were raised and on June 19th, 2002, 50 years later on the anniversary of his death, the Colorado National Monument Association erected a sandstone headstone in the shape of the Independence Monument, to honor the hero of this story, John Otto, a man with a monumental vision.

Product Highlights

SERIOUS SHINE IS SPARKLE IN A CAN

From afar, RVs look clean as they glisten in the sun; up close, it's another story. But with Shurhold Serious Shine, it's easy to restore a camper or motorhome's showroom sparkle. Made in the USA, the easy-to-use spray detailer quickly removes dirt marks, water spots and residue from a wide range of surfaces.

Serious Shine cleans, polishes and protects in one simple step. Unlike some cleaners, it doesn't leave behind a greasy residue. This makes it ideal for fiberglass, paint, vinyl and other dust-prone areas. On glass, shower doors, stainless steel appliances and mirrors, it doesn't streak. With UV inhibitors and anti-static properties, it's ideal for use on touchscreens and other delicate electronics.

Using aerosol Serious Shine is simple. It's sprayed directly onto the surface from 6"–8" away and wiped with a Shurhold Microfiber Towel. When the dirt is removed, the cloth is flipped and the area buffed until the residue disappears. Shurhold Serious Shine costs $16.98 for a 14 oz. can; a three-pack of Microfiber Towels is $19.98.

Shurhold is dedicated to educating owners on RV value preservation. Inventor of the One Handle Does It All system, Shurhold manufactures specialty care items and accessories to clean, polish and detail.

DANK AND MUSTY? NOT WITH IOSSO ODOR BUSTER

No matter how clean it is, a dank and musty boat or RV is unwelcoming. But it's easy to remove these stale, moldy smells with Iosso Odor Buster. Simple to use, it turns the space fresh and airy without merely masking the odors with heavy fragrances.

Iosso Odor Buster has no aroma, nor does it leave one. Environmentally friendly, the unique formula neutralizes and eliminates common odor problems naturally. People with chemical sensitivities are unaffected by the product and it's safe to use around children and pets—often a major source of the smells.

Fast-acting Odor Buster can be applied directly onto fabric, carpeting, cushions, clothing and shoes without altering the color. For large areas, especially with kitchen and tobacco odors, it can be sprayed into the air while backing out of the space.

Iosso Odor Buster comes in three convenient sizes: a 4 oz. bottle costs $4.95; a 32 oz. spray bottle is $19.95; and a 1 gal. container is $64.99.
